The truth. It blows my mind how people make insane interpretations out of the most plain and straight-forward text compiled by history's greatest scholars & apostles.
The bible can't be more clear but you have so many people referring to other people's readings of it.
Why?

Don't get me started about people who treat it like a jigsaw puzzle, jumping from verse to verse, making the bible say something they want said.

You clip a word from each page of a book to write whatever you want.
The same goes for chaining sentences together. face palm

I've encountered so many false teaching and false teachers. My was trust eroded as I was misled into jigsaw "studies".

A straight reading of the gospel was refreshing.
American Christianity is defeated by Jesus Christ himself. You have to FOLLOW him in order to be with him.

I Never Knew You

21 "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. 22 On that day many will say to me, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name?' 23 And then will I declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness.'

Build Your House on the Rock

24 "Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. 25 And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on the rock. 26 And everyone who hears these words of mine and does not do them will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand. 27 And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell, and great was the fall of it."

The Authority of Jesus

28 And when Jesus finished these sayings, the crowds were astonished at his teaching, 29 for he was teaching them as one who had authority, and not as their scribes.

... and you can't do that by not reading the Word. Then practicing his deeds. You'll quickly find that everything he asked of you was for YOUR benefit because he loved you.

Sin is death. Repentance is good, but try and avoid sinning. The easiest way is to practice asceticism.

When I was a small child (4 years of age) I did something I didn't immediately recognise as sinful/wrong, I won't transmit it here, but it betrayed the trust of someone I was a guest of.
Instead of reprimanding me, my mother explained why it was wrong and the consequences of it.

Being an imaginative child (in retrospect, a very strange one but I won't add to this) I couldn't stop thinking about the consequences, and days later I would bring it up and ask about them. My mother laughed and assured me it was alright.Yet I had been taught an important lesson

A lesson many people learn later in life perhaps developing their personality without concern for others. This is just a simple thing, but think of it on a higher level, the sooner you read the bible yourself (and not through others), the sooner you take in many lessons for free.

Today, the world is headed to hell because Americans cannot or will not read, and have led down the primrose road by Scofield and his "bible interpretation".

Things like the "rapture" are in the bible, yet millions now believe in it because of one false teacher and an agenda.

Matthew 13 English Standard Version

The Parable of the Sower

13 That same day Jesus went out of the house and sat beside the sea. 2 And great crowds gathered about him, so that he got into a boat and sat down. And the whole crowd stood on the beach. 3 And he told them many things in parables, saying: "A sower went out to sow. 4 And as he sowed, some seeds fell along the path, and the birds came and devoured them. 5 Other seeds fell on rocky ground, where they did not have much soil, and immediately they sprang up, since they had no depth of soil, 6 but when the sun rose they were scorched. And since they had no root, they withered away. 7 Other seeds fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them. 8 Other seeds fell on good soil and produced grain, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. 9 He who has ears,[a] let him hear."

The Purpose of the Parables

10 Then the disciples came and said to him, "Why do you speak to them in parables?" 11 And he answered them, "To you it has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given. 12 For to the one who has, more will be given, and he will have an abundance, but from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. 13 This is why I speak to them in parables, because seeing they do not see, and hearing they do not hear, nor do they understand. 14 Indeed, in their case the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled that says:

> "'"You will indeed hear but never understand, > and you will indeed see but never perceive." > 15 For this people's heart has grown dull, > and with their ears they can barely hear,
> and their eyes they have closed, > lest they should see with their eyes > and hear with their ears > and understand with their heart > and turn, and I would heal them.'

16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see, and your ears, for they hear. 17 For truly, I say to you, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see, and did not see it, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it.

The Parable of the Sower Explained

18 "Hear then the parable of the sower: 19 When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what has been sown in his heart. This is what was sown along the path. 20 As for what was sown on rocky ground, this is the one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy, 21 yet he has no root in himself, but endures for a while, and when tribulation or persecution arises on account of the word, immediately he falls away.[b] 22 As for what was sown among thorns, this is the one who hears the word, but the cares of the world and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and it proves unfruitful. 23 As for what was sown on good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands it. He indeed bears fruit and yields, in one case a hundredfold, in another sixty, and in another thirty."

The Parable of the Weeds

24 He put another parable before them, saying, "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a man who sowed good seed in his field, 25 but while his men were sleeping, his enemy came and sowed weeds[c] among the wheat and went away. 26 So when the plants came up and bore grain, then the weeds appeared also. 27 And the servants[d] of the master of the house came and said to him, 'Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? How then does it have weeds?' 28 He said to them, 'An enemy has done this.' So the servants said to him, 'Then do you want us to go and gather them?' 29 But he said, 'No, lest in gathering the weeds you root up the wheat along with them. 30 Let both grow together until the harvest, and at harvest time I will tell the reapers, "Gather the weeds first and bind them in bundles to be burned, but gather the wheat into my barn."'"

The Mustard Seed and the Leaven

31 He put another parable before them, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard seed that a man took and sowed in his field. 32 It is the smallest of all seeds, but when it has grown it is larger than all the garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and make nests in its branches."

33 He told them another parable. "The kingdom of heaven is like leaven that a woman took and hid in three measures of flour, till it was all leavened."

Is it not conceivable that such a false teacher could have existed long ago, and perhaps less recently but nearer in time? It is. Should we throw out all discussion of the bible? Of course not.

But do well to build your house on the rock, so that we have the best foundation.

Prophecy and Parables

34 All these things Jesus said to the crowds in parables; indeed, he said nothing to them without a parable. 35 This was to fulfill what was spoken by the prophet:

> "I will open my mouth in parables;
> I will utter what has been hidden since the foundation of the world."

The Parable of the Weeds Explained

36 Then he left the crowds and went into the house. And his disciples came to him, saying, "Explain to us the parable of the weeds of the field." 37 He answered,
"The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man. 38 The field is the world, and the good seed is the sons of the kingdom. The weeds are the sons of the evil one, 39 and the enemy who sowed them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels. 40 Just as the weeds are gathered and burned with fire, so will it be at the end of the age. 41 The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all law-breakers, 42 and throw them into the fiery furnace. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. 43 Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears, let him hear.

The Parable of the Hidden Treasure

44 "The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and covered up. Then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.

The Parable of the Pearl of Great Value

45 "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls, 46 who, on finding one pearl of great value, went and sold all that he had and bought it.

The Parable of the Net

47 "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was thrown into the sea and gathered fish of every kind. 48 When it was full, men drew it ashore and sat down and sorted the good into containers but threw away the bad. 49 So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come out and separate the evil from the righteous 50 and throw them into the fiery furnace. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

New and Old Treasures

51 "Have you understood all these things?" They said to him, "Yes." 52 And he said to them, "Therefore every scribe who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like a master of a house, who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old."

Jesus Rejected at Nazareth

53 And when Jesus had finished these parables, he went away from there, 54 and coming to his hometown he taught them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished, and said, "Where did this man get this wisdom and these mighty works? 55 Is not this the carpenter's son? Is not his mother called Mary? And are not his brothers James and Joseph and Simon and Judas? 56 And are not all his sisters with us? Where then did this man get all these things?" 57 And they took offense at him. But Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in his hometown and in his own household." 58 And he did not do many mighty works there, because of their unbelief.

Footnotes

a. Matthew 13:9 Some manuscripts add here and in verse 43 to hear
b. Matthew 13:21 Or stumbles
c. Matthew 13:25 Probably darnel, a wheat-like weed
d. Matthew 13:27 Or bondservants; also verse 28
e. Matthew 13:35 Some manuscripts Isaiah the prophet

A terrible storm approaches, and false teachers will lead you to build your house on mud -- it may slide away. Be sure to build your foundation on the rock that is the Word itself.

Goodnight and may God bless you.

[P.S. I don't want to take away from the effort it takes to create a translation and do away with the burden of time and language -- the people who dedicate their lives to this are heroic and deserve nothing but respect. But at least... let's benefit from their effort!]

[P.P.S I am also forever in debt to those who corrected me and taught me better than those who misled me, I hope I corrected them too. I surely don't have it all right, but I really hope I will. Correct me:

As iron sharpens iron, so one person sharpens another. Proverbs 27:17]

[P.P.P.S the guy I quoted is a thoroughly misled person, a bad example, not a good one. See his jigsaw puzzling, lol.]
