Where is this crazy 4B/6B movement coming from?

Well, if you read this to its end you'll know! /📰

In our fallen soyciety by the time a girl realises what a good man is and represents, she is too old to be of any interest to him, and she has already lost her ability to love him even if he foolishly lets her into his life.

She also realises what she lost as a youthful girl, and how much of a treasure it was. It's hard for such a person not to look at still healthy young girls with disdain. Women manifest sins more readily than men under the same circumstances, and so these women will do everything in their power to destroy the young women -- their competition -- by convincing them to become as unattractive and unavailable to the men they actually want.

They will then try and shame those men away from the younger women, with bullsh*t like "age gap" and other things: for example, a lot of men now go for Asian women because they are objectively superior in almost every single way to a modern western women. What do these aged out hags do? They turn it into a "fetish", even though men are just going for what they like. Personally, I ask people to turn away from race-mixing -- but that's not the position of these women, they turn it into an attack on men.

The Great Inversion

In general, they take everything men love and turn it into something shameful.

They turn chastity into loserhood.
They take cuteness and turn it into pervertedness.
They take beautifully cared for hair and chop it to bits and dye it like a clown.
They take perfectly clean skin and tattoo it, pierce it, put on a fake tan and generally destroy it with "make up".
They take beautiful feminine clothes and discard them, and wear a jeans and t-shirt like an old slob from a video rental store in the 90s instead.
They take the beautiful spirit of a pure hearted girl, wanting to help the people around her and bring everyone together, and turn her into a selfish individual looking out for her vain interests.
They take raising a family and depict it as shameful, and instead they promote getting a career -- so the woman "don't need no man".

Then they attack men who don't like their new ways, they make them out to be demonic for wanting what they are naturally attracted to. They demand a p*ssified c*ckolded man who cries in front of them and goes to therapy. A non-existent man that they've fooled themselves into thinking they could manifest through shame.

In short they took everything that is feminine... and turned it masculine. [Then demanded feminity from men in return.] Apparently all of this is feminism, aka transgenderism. It has been going on for a long time, and is endemic -- you cannot escape it as a woman or man, as most of the rules of our society are built around it.

The Trade LARP and the Witch's Coven

Then, after all of this... they do something even more evil.

They take their haggard, withered self, and then they try to LARP what men want. At age 35, they transform themselves into "Tradwives". They finally start giving men what they want -- but they're not wanted themselves. This enrages them further and by age 45, they form witch's covens. These witch's covens destroy society by accelerating the destruction of women as before.

They also contain men and strip them of power by destroying the governance of nations (thanks to Democracy). They're even empowered by our natural enemies to do this. Look at every governing board and you'll see these "Karens", destroying society from within.

In the past... these witches were dealt with in a very violent manner, and were erased from society. Girls, young women, men even, were protected by their parents, grandparents, godparents, families around them and the King. This safety net is completely gone, allowing the witches to do whatever they want.

And now they want a complete disconnect from men. The irony? It has already happened. The 4B/6B "movement" is completely redundant as the connection between men and women has been entirely shattered! Birth rates are plummeting towards zero and marriage rates are dropping even faster. But it doesn't end there, seeing pools of disgusting creatures that could have grown up to become women, the majority of women are refusing to even try dating any woman -- the % of men who haven't had sex in half a decade is now approaching 50%. Among zoomers, those who have never even been out with a woman is now exceeding 63%.

The Real Purpose of 4B/6B

So who exactly are these witches running away from? No one. No one wants them, and actually most men don't even want the younger women they have irreversibly corrupted. Then it cannot be about that.

So here's what the 4B/6B movement is all about: It's shifting the blame of the fruits of "feminism" back to men -- while giving out the illusion that only women can reverse it. It was men who actually made the first move to step away from women. Women thought men would tolerate feminism-infinity, but that is not so. MGTOW is the #1 ideology among men today -- and MGTOW is even more extreme than the 4B/6B movement once you get to the "monk mode" and other ideas.

No one has to sell MGTOW to men -- it comes naturally because women just aren't good enough anymore.

So these witches have taken this fact and inverted it. They put themselves into the position of the MGTOW men, and are acting like men aren't good enough (LOL). Just like the career, the wearing of the pants, the masculinisation.

Now, the witch's coven are using their great inversion to LARP as MGTOW men. That's essentially it.

The outcome of this? They get to blame men for our extinction, when we all know it's women to blame. Then they will demand action from the regime to "change men's behaviour", as they have here in Australia -- where we have ministers responsible for doing so. In Russia, the liberal Putin has created a "sex ministry", which will undoubtedly blame men for what's happening, instead of reversing the court on the great inversion and attacking the witch's coven.

As always, non-participation is key -- don't even respond to them, talk at them, describe what they are and warn our young brothers from what women have become. I'm not a MGTOW -- I'm still open to the almost impossible chance of a pure hearted woman out there. But the probability of everyone like me getting one is zero, because of how many women have been ruined.

And that's not our fault. It's soyciety's and the witch's. Until society is fixed and we get rid of all the witches, by deporting them to India, extinction is assured. But remember, it won't be men's fault!

The End
