Here's why simps have a meltdown and sound so whingey: They want to feel like their wives appreciate them.
The truth is, you should feel appreciation for your wife, not vice versa. She should serve you and submit to you. Otherwise she won't feel satisfied.

Female appreciation: by Abuamerican Dedicated to every ex wife I was too good to

Most women have a hard time being appreciative for many reasons. Their inane solipsism is the fist barrier and after that is the gilded life the vast majority of them have enjoyed where they are Show more

Time for me to be a little harsh on men:

Women want someone they respect to dominate them, but the majority of men today are laughable cucks, not worth of anyone's respect.
The majority of you guys are such weak disgraces, it's no wonder women turn to criminals for passion.

So if you find yourself whinging that your GF/wife doesn't appreciate you, then you've already lost: You were never really a man.

She will walk away and find a real one, morality be damned.
The most "manly" guy there is, is daddy regime and he's made every woman his b*tch.

No matter how strong of a man you think you are, you cannot overpower him alone. He will slip in and make your wife/gf/etc. his, and in the process also throw your ass in prison if he wants you, take half your stuff and tax it, and more, lol.

You're living in a brothel!

So you can pretend to be a man in this situation, but you aren't one. You're a simulacrum of a man, living in a cage.

The only solution is to:

a) Not participate. [My choice]
b) Become a criminal.
c) Bind together with other men and completely destroy the regime.
