Allow me to explain "Hoeflation"

In the west, majority of men have already abandoned women. Not just western women but women all together.

Meanwhile, women have not -- and chase worthless clowns who they think are "Chads", increasing their arrogance year by year. /

Why did men abandon women? Because most women today are terrible. Arrogant, behave like men, I can go on but you all know what I mean. Feminism and culture has destroyed women for most sane men.

There's no need for a women unless you want to contribute to society by having kids.

Many (not all) men, unlike women, don't really have the drive to create kids. It's a higher order desire you get much later, typically in your mid-30s, because you want to pass on your knowledge and shape the generation to come.
Social pressure used to make you have them earlier.

Other than the children? You don't need women.
You can either cook for yourself or buy food.
You can hire a cleaner or clean a small place yourself.
Dishwasher, washing machines, dryers all exist.
You can access the entire world through the internet, you won't be "alone".

Women on the other hand, need men. Their desire to have children is not simply a higher order one but an instinctual one that has to be divorced from them through social engineering (e.g. focusing on pets and what not).
And a woman denied this... becomes a terror to society.

The social engineering on women is mainly done by bitter old crones who missed out. They tell women to become the exact opposite of what men want (in fact, they DEMONISE women who try to be what men want them to be).

[Incidentally:
好 (Woman+Child) = Good
姦 (Many women) = Evil]

These crones (many of them Khazars, by the way) then tell women to chase men who are the complete opposite of who they need. Vagabonds, losers, men with no ambitions, or evil powerful men.
They give them attention and more, then they move on to the next woman. It's very cyclical.

By the end of this cycle, this woman has been with many men, of terrible constitution, who gave her a huge amount of attention. But she still needs her biological directive. Children. A family to belong to.

What she needs out of a man increases exponentially.
She is ruined though, even with the first vagabond she meets, who takes her virginity then leaves her heart broken.

She will never respect the next man who dedicates himself to her. He is, after all, a cuckold. He compromised on her, and she knows this. She won't treat him well.

Even though the woman now needs a lot more from a man, what she can offer is far less.
By the time she realises her folly, her youth is gone.
Her ability to pair bond was long gone [nowadays, before she even turns 18].
What can she can offer a man who doesn't need anyone? A womb.

This is the source of the "hoeflation". The perception of the women is skewed by her own actions and social engineering.
The woman is ruined by the time a serious man is assessing her.
He had to work hard on himself, just to end up with a completely ruined woman. LOL.

Most men are now weighing things and just giving up. They're not into the cycle of fornication. They don't want to give their hearts away to someone who did so a long time before them.

I hate the term "market" in this context, but there is indeed a good analogy for this.

An illiquid market!
This starts when huge market gap between the "bid" (what someone is willing to pay for something) and the "ask" (what someone is willing to sell something for) exists.
Market participants will gradually abandon a stock if this persists as no trades can happen.

And that's where we are at.
Most women have been ruined (95%).
Most men are now aware of this (57% back in 2020, likely 63-65% today).
The "ask" is too high, going higher, and it can't ever be lowered, as bad human behaviour at a societal level is EXTREMELY difficult to correct.

Meanwhile, thanks to modern conveniences, the "bid" is going lower and lower. Men don't need the hassle.
And for evil men into fornication, why buy the cow when the milk is free? They will never settle for people who have given themselves away.

"Hoeflation" is not merely a meme, but the beginning of human extinction. The only way we can get out of this is to isolate ourselves from those who have given themselves away and form a new society that excludes them. Probably moving far away...

Preferably in Gensokyo.
