Even before you're born, the Judeosatanic system pumps your mother with poisons that it claims will make her feel better during her pregnancy. / 📄

Then, after you're born and throughout your childhood, the system pumps you with poisons that it claims will protect you from disease.

Then, in the 12 more important formative years of your life, the system will dump mind poisons into you, insisting it will make you more educated (whatever that means). It will force you to associate with as many other poisoned children to make you conformal via osmosis. It will force you into contact with the opposite sex early to loosen up bonding -- and to have the females ruin themselves as early as possible.

Once you've been sufficiently brainwashed into compliance as a default behaviour, you'll be ready to earn poisoned "money". This money is actually debt all the way down, competing with others like you and driving down the value of your own labor in the poisoned "capitalist market". Meanwhile, they never compete and cooperate out of their synagogues, where they coordinate the counterfeiting operations that keep this money going.

Then, for the rest of your life, you'll be eating and drinking parasite laden poisons that will shorten it just so that you can work long enough in the Judeosatanic pastures, until you contract cancer (from their parasites). Even then, they will pump you with literal poison ("chemotherapy") and make you pay your entire earnt savings for the privilege insisting that it will heal you.

The Judeosatanic system hopes you'll make more slaves for it along the way, but it couldn't help itself, but insert its bond-breaking poisons into women, so that the bonds you make will break and it can collect your money through divorce proceedings and by creating two broken homes.

Even if you never divorce though, the Judeosatanic system convinced women to desire the greatest poison of all in the form of premarital sex. These women are all attached to other equally poisoned men, and will carry the soul destroying poison into the body of the men foolish enough to be with them.

But our generations have wised up to this particular poison, because these women can never feel love again. So many men, as poisoned as they are, began to walk away. And suddenly, the pastures of cattle are drying up. The so-called fertility crisis is really the poisoned population crisis.

In a panic, they're importing more cattle of Hindus, but even those aren't breeding fast enough, as the Judeosatanic both system spreads AND collapses at the same time thanks to the information revolution.

Those who remain standing will have rejected every poison and protected women from the mind and body poisons. Their children will have avoided every poison of the Judeosatanic system, which is collapsing. Then, one day, they will come after these parasite beings and their cattle, and forge a new world atop of the dried bones of their now extinct enemies.
